The Simple Things In Life

by Julie Hebert,

The simple things in life,
Are usually in front of your eyes.
All you have to do each day,
Is look up into the skies.

Look at the beauty around you,
Run and play outside.
Find what you've been missing,
Look what's in front, in back and beside.

We usually don't even realize,
What we miss out on each day.
When was the last time you made an effort,
To go to the ocean and see the bay?

Life is so very short,
We need to take advantage of our time,
Open your eyes to the simple things,
jump up, get out, anytime is prime.
