

Norman 'Bruce' Whalley

1930 - 2023

ORDER OF SERVICE

Music: The Way We Were (Barbara Streisand)
Amazing Grace (Instrumental Pipes)

Poem:

I heard your voice in the wind today and I turned to see your face
The warmth of the wind caressed me as I stood silently in place.
I felt your touch in the sun today as it's warmth filled the sky
I closed my eyes for your embrace and my spirit soared high.
I saw your eyes in the window pane as I watched the falling rain
It seemed as each rain drop fell it quietly said your name.
I held you close in my heart today, it made me feel complete
You may have died ... but you are not gone...
You will always be part of me
As long as the sun shines ...
The wind blows ...
The rain falls ...
You will live on inside of me forever,
For that is all my heart knows.

Final Words: Celebrant

23rd Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want,
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths
of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Music: My Way (Frank Sinatra)

Craig, Dianne and their families would like to thank you most sincerely for your kind thoughts and support during their time of sadness.

They would like you to join them for light refreshments here at the Chapel, for a short time, before moving to the Portarlington Cemetery to lay Bruce's body to rest.
